—The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A., announced for this evening has been postponed until next week, notice of which will be given later.

—The jury in the case of Williams against Richardson, in the circuit court, found for the plaintiff, assessing the damages at sixty-five dollars.

—President T. J. Casey, of the Ancient order of Elbormians, has issued a call for a special meeting of that society to be held at 8 o'clock this evening, in their hall, Lappin block. All members are requested to attend.

—Don't forget the picnic at Pope's Springs to-morrow afternoon. Dancing in the evening. Music by the Arion band. The steamer Enterprise will make trips every hour after 1 o'clock p.m. Take a boat ride by moonlight.

—The steamer Enterprise will have on board at three o'clock to-morrow afternoon the C. C. Band to entertain the trip with some music. They will give a concert at the picnic grounds in the afternoon. Dancing in the evening.

—Adas M. Winslow, residing with his parents on Milton avenue, died at one o'clock this morning of consumption in the nineteenth year of his age. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. The family but recently removed to this city from the east.

—Supervisor O. F. Nowlan yesterday sold his fine "Dabbing" trotting colt to Mr. T. S. McKnight, of Milwaukee, receiving a handsome price. The colt is a promising trotter, and is a splendid looking animal, the kind of stock we regret to see leave this section.

—Mrs. R. C. Spencer, of Milwaukee, and Hon. Anson Rogers, of this city, have been appointed by Governor Russ additional delegates from Wisconsin to the National Conference of Charities and Correction. The conference assembles in Washington, D. C., June 4th to 10th.

—Messrs. Foote & Wilcox are again on deck with a very complete line of men's and boys' clothing. Their stock of genteel furnishings goods is complete in every department; a very choice line of neck wear is displayed. Read their ad in another column.

—The meeting of the Choral Union last evening was held in the Guards' armory, at Cannon's hall was very occupied. The society is growing into a very strong organization, as it has already one hundred and fifteen members, twelve of whom joined last night, and the large attendance was evidence that much interest is being developed in musical matters.

—The Swiss bell ringers and specialty company drew another crowded house last evening. The entertainment is a good one and is worthy the patronage of the public. This evening the company appear for the last time this season, and the house will again be crowded. They give a machine performance this afternoon, commencing at four o'clock, for the benefit of the school children.

—Last evening the horse attached to the grocery delivery wagon of Yankirk Bros., West Milwaukee street, created a little excitement by starting on a run down the sidewalk. The horse was headed with a heavy car coupling link to which it had been hitched, and before the animal had attained much speed it was caught in front of Messrs. Tarrant & Osgood's grocery and before any damage resulted.

—A self-appointed committee consisting of a representative from each side of the river, started out yesterday afternoon to raise a little money to hire the band for the use of the Grand Army men on Decoration Day. Almost without exception our business men seemed glad of an opportunity to contribute, and as a result sixty-two dollars was soon raised and turned over to Commander Hayward, of the Post. This gentleman was thoroughly surprised and very much gratified. The money will be spent by the Post to defray the necessary expenses of Decoration Day. The public are very cordially invited to participate in all the exercises of the one day in the year made sacred by tender associations. A program will be published in the columns of the Gazette later in the week, giving full particulars as to the line of march, &c.

—Under the heading of "Our Look County Violin Maker," the Beloit Free Press gives Mr. C. Wheeler this comment: "The violin O. E. Dahl played on yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. meeting was made two weeks ago by Mr. C. Wheeler, of Janesville, Wis., and is a beautiful instrument in appearance as well as in tone. Mr. Dahl intends to use this for solo violin in his concerts after this, and has had a more costly violin made. Mr. Wheeler has made fourteen violins and sold one. Those he has made during the past year he has sold for $75.00 each, while the first one he turned out he sold at $50.00 each. Mr. L. Williams, of the Beloit string band, bought one for $50.00 that he would not sell now for three times this amount. Mr. Johnnie Smith, leader of Burr Robbins' band, has another. Mr. Wheeler has certainly made a great success, as his violins not only please all those using them in this vicinity, but have given entire satisfaction to the eminent professors of Cincinnati. It is no ordinary work to build a violin, and it requires the skill of an artist as well as that of a mechanic to produce fine instruments. Mr. Wheeler, who by the way is the father of Miss Gertrude Wheeler, the well-known violinist, is himself a good player and took to making the instruments believing that he could produce superior violins. He expects to soon devote his whole time to the manufacture of the instrument.

JOYFULLY JOINED.

SEARS-PARKER.

At Shupere, Wis., on Wednesday evening, May 20th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Parker, was celebrated the wedding of their daughter, Miss May, and Mr. Albert E. Sears.

The occasion was one of those happy affairs that will be remembered by all who were present. At precisely 8 o'clock Miss Lula Parker commenced to play the wedding march. A few minutes after the wedding couple entered the room and took their places beneath a beautiful floral yoke. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. B. Jackson, of Emerald Grove, and was done in a nice and befitting manner with some very appropriate remarks which were given to the young couple—the floral design of the yoke being his text. After the ceremony the happy pair received the congratulations of those present and were soon enjoying themselves with the rest of the company.

After an hour of social enjoyment the company were served with refreshments by the Misses Nellie Holmes and Lula Parker, and Masters Benno Sears, and DeWitt Parker.

The following presents were received as tokens of love and friendship from those present, and absent friends:

Silver berry dish and spoon, George Sears; silver butter dish, Mrs. George Sears; check on First National Bank for $200, Father and Mother Parker; gold band china tea set, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holmes; perfume bottle and pitcher, Mrs. E. Gent, Rockford, Illinois; silver syrup pitcher, Thos. Cooling, Rockford; silver flower vase, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cooper, Washington, D. C.; five dollar bill, from Waldo and Hannah Parker, Irving, D. T.; silver fruit dish, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sprague; silver butter knife from Miss Annie Kline; water set, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fisher; silver bowl, creamer and spoonholder, Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith and daughter; pickle caster, Hattie and Byron; set of salts, Benno Sears; pickle caster, Grandma Cooling; silver caster, DeWitt A. Parker; silver butter knife and ladies' work basket, Mrs. A. Parker; large picture of Uncle Sullivan, framed, Mrs. S. F. Pike, Southboro, Mass.; water set, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Latta, Clinton; basket quilt and pickle caster, Lula Parker; one-half dozen fruit plates, Mr. and Mrs. Will Van Valen, Janesville; toothpick holder, Master Stanley Smith; worked handkerchief, Mrs. F. M. Smith; fancy towel, Nellie Holmes; silver pie knife, Mr. and Mrs. D. Van Valen; Illustrated Poems, by E. J. Hall, Chas. H. Belding; bronze clock, Miss Flora Clarke, Defiance, Ohio; silver butter dish and knife, Dr. Albert Cooling, Wilton, Iowa; a full set of silver knives, forks, spoons, butter knife, sugar spoon and pickle fork, Mr. Ed. Dawson, Perry, Iowa; two boxes of beautiful flowers, one from Miss Julia Chapp, Escanaba, Mich., and one from Miss Addie Smith, Clinton; a "rod of correction" which consisted of a broom handle, with appropriate directions for use and dedicated to Mrs. J. E. Sears, was given by one who had been a student.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears left Thursday morning amid a shower of rice and old shoes, which were thrown at them as they left the village to take the cars for Frankfort and Carthage, Dakota, where they will spend some two weeks visiting friends in these places. May the joy and peace which come to all hearts that are truly united, come to them through life. Is the wish of their many friends in this place. B. H. S.

FOOT.

Riversides vs. Uniques, was quite a drawing card at the rink last night, though the attendance was not so large as at the previous games. The game lasted forty minutes, and at the end of that time the score stood 3 to 2 in favor of the Riversides. The now team did very well considering the short time which they have had for practice, and after they have been together longer, will make a very creditable fight with any club. The uniforms of the old polo club are a very attractive looking set when the whole club are on the floor, though the white shirts and red hights look rather odd on a single skater. The pattern is the regulation polo costume, and the suits will be just the thing for the boys to gain the championship in.
